

08 SEP, 2024

All is set for national final at Forest City

Sunday Star, Malaysia

All is set for national final at Forest City

THE stage is set for an entertaining showdown of the Perodua National Amateur Golf Series national final at Forest City Golf Resort in Johor tomorrow and Tuesday.

The event will bring together 70 talented Malaysian amateur golfers, each having earned their spot as champions in their respective qualifying rounds, to vie for the title national champion.

The winners across the five handicap categories will earn the opportunity to represent Malaysia at the World Amateur Golfers Championship final in Phuket, Thailand.

This all-expenses-paid trip, will see these national champions compete against top amateur from over 40 countries, parading their skills from Oct 25 to Nov 2, 2024.

The world final will be hosted at four Phuket golf courses: Red Mountain, Laguna Golf Club and Blue Canyon Golf & Country Club – the Canyon Course and Lakes Course.

“The programme for this year’s national final includes a welcome dinner and flag raising ceremony at Forest City,” said the tournament’s organising chairman Lokman Ishak.

He added that the 36-hole competition will teeoff in a strokeplay format, with the event held at the Legacy Course tomorrow and the Classic course the following day.

Malaysia’s Deputy Minister of Youth and Sports Adam Adli Abd Halim is expected at the event on Tuesday, where he is due to hand out the awards.

The tournament is sanctioned by the Ministry of Youth & Sports and receives strong support from Tourism Malaysia.

This event is also sponsored by Perodua, along with key partners Spectrum Outdoor, Volvik, VIN Distribution,

The impressive Forest City courses await the players of the final.

Skechers Golf, and Fella Design. Additional sponsors contributing to the event’s success include Malaysia Aviation Group – Malaysia Airlines, MASwings, and Firefly

– Gatorade, Bleu, Wonda Coffee, Sting, IROAS Watch, Hospitality 360, Jakes Charbroil, Le Botanical, ThroatSil, Acti-Tape, Munchy’s, and Vanakam Malaysia.

08 SEP, 2024

All is set for national final at Forest City

Sunday Star, Malaysia

Page 2 of 2

SUMMARIES

THE stage is set for an entertaining showdown of the Perodua National Amateur Golf Series national final at Forest City Golf Resort in Johor tomorrow and Tuesday. The event will bring together 70 talented Malaysian amateur golfers, each having earned their spot as champions in their respective qualifying rounds, to vie for the title national champion.