THE PERFECT PLATE AWARDS ARE BACK 2024

Daily Telegraph, Sydney

Highlighting the extraordinary culinary creations on offer in clubs right across NSW, the Your Local Club Perfect Plate Awards are back for a fourth year.

Be sure to keep an eye out for celebrity chefs and Perfect Plate ambassadors Matt Moran and Courtney Roulston at your local club, as the duo tours the state inspiring club chefs to put their Perfect Plate forward and win the hearts — and tastebuds — of the public.

Matt is stoked about returning as Perfect Plate Ambassador and he is looking forward to trying each dish. "We had some great entries last year and we're going to have even better this year," Matt said. Courtney is really excited to be back on board and given her years of club experience, she can't wait to taste the "authentic, delicious food in clubs."

Public voting for the Perfect Plate Awards kicks off today at participating clubs and will wrap up on 16 June, with the 13 regional winners, the three state winners in the small, medium and large club categories and one state winner for best dessert set to be announced in July.

Bankstown Sports Club's Land & Sea won the top spot in the Large Club State category at the 2023 Perfect Plate Awards.

THE PERFECT PLATE AWARDS ARE BACK FOR 2024

Courtney Roulston and Matt Moran are the 2024 Your Local Club Perfect Plate Awards Ambassadors.

Meet Our 2024 Perfect Plate Ambassadors

The competition's ambassadors — celebrity chefs Matt Moran and Courtney Roulston — are getting ready to hit the road to see what NSW clubs have cooking and who might take home the industry's culinary crown.

The club industry's premier dining competition is judged entirely by the public. With dishes like Dee Why RSL's Seared Canadian Scallops with Green Pea and Bacon Risotto, and Wenty League's entry into this year's 'Best Dessert' of Apple Pie Calzone with Vanilla Bean Gelato, diners will be in for a real treat.

Both Matt and Courtney are proud to have started their careers in clubs and are eager to promote the quality and diversity of club cuisine.
