Fauziah enrolls in Bachelor of Psychology programme

KUCHING: Toh Puan Datuk Patinggi Fauziah Mohd Sanusi has enrolled as a new student in the Bachelor of Psychology programme under Open University Malaysia (OUM), reflecting her commitment to lifelong learning.

Fauziah attended the New Student Orientation Session for the May 2026 semester held at the Astana Sarawak yesterday.

The session was conducted by Hamimah Kipli, director of OUM Kuching Learning Centre, together with assistant manager Avril Noviana Christopher Kadir.

During the session, Fauziah was briefed on the use of OUM's official platforms, myINSPIRE and myOUM, which serve as digital learning tools to facilitate access to study materials, participation in online lectures, and efficient academic management.

Her enrolment in the Bachelor of Psychology programme marks a significant step towards embracing continuous education.

She also expressed appreciation for OUM's progressive, inclusive, and accessible education model, which enables individuals from various backgrounds to pursue higher education flexibly without compromising academic quality.
